SOCCER PREVIEW FOR 1975

The current trend in collegiate soccer is to emphasize strong defense. Strong, experienced fullbacks forming a solid line of defense in front of the goalie. The '75 Terrapins have just that, an experienced group of fullbacks and a goalie considered by many to be one of the best in the country. However, an inexperienced forward line has Coach Jim Dietsch a little concerned.

Leading the group of veteran fullbacks is Ercument Berilgen (Sr.) an All-American in 1973 and a member of the All-ACC and All-South teams in 1974. Joining Berilgen will be Don Kraft (So.) a part-time starter in 1974 and Larry Sterns (Sr.) who played for Nassau C.C. before starting for the Terps last season. Adding depth to the fullback corp will be Alroy Scott, a transfer from Montgomery College and Steve Salamony from Essex C.C. In goal for Coach Dietsch will be Mike Farrell, last year's starter. Pushing Mike will be Tony Kondratenko, a junior college transfer from Essex C.C., the National Junior College Soccer Champs for 1974. While at Essex, Kondratenko won All-American honors in goal.

The leader of the halfback line will be senior Fred Winckelmann, an All-ACC and All-South performer in 1974. With Winckelmann will be 2 year letterman Omer Pence (Sr.), Gonzalo Soto (Jr.) and two promising freshmen. Robert Kim of Largo H.S. and Dan Gresser of Northwestern H.S. provide needed depth on the halfback line and could move into starting positions if the upper classmen faulter.

The weakest area of the 1974 squad was the forward line. With the return of the '74 top scorer and the addition of two offensively oriented freshmen, Coach Dietsch is looking forward to a season with more than 22 goals being scored. Sophomore Dogan Elverenli, Francis Ngoh and a healthy Eric Packheiser (So.) provide the Terps with 3 solid offensive performers. If this trio fails to produce, Chris Miller (Largo H.S.) and Ken Johnson (Laurel H.S.) will have the opportunity to demonstrate the skills that earned them All-Metro honors last year. Miller, in addition to being All-Metro, was named the Top Offensive Player in Maryland a year ago.

The '75 schedule is a tough one. The Terps open the 12 game slate with Baltimore U., a team known to be very physical and aggressive. After matches with American U., Madison College, Catholic U. and conference foe N.C. State, the Terps will face their toughest competition at University Park against Penn State. The remainder of the schedule includes such teams as Navy, always a well-conditioned and aggressive opponent, and twice defending ACC Champs Clemson. This last regular season contest will be played on the Terps home field and could decide the conference championship.

With the addition of a group of talented frosh, the '75 Terps will have adequate depth but much of this depth will be inexperienced and its development will determine how successful the Terps season will be.
